HAMMETT'S

COLLECTION

RECRUITMENT & CAREERS

WELCOME TO HAMMETT'S COLLECTION

Hammett's Collection is a group of novelty restaurants and establishments founded by 24-time award winning Chef and restaurateur Chris Hammett.

All establishments in the Hammett's Collection are renowned for providing unique dining experiences and excellence in quality cuisine in prime locations around Malta. The award-winning quality in our offering is owed to our elite kitchen brigades and our impeccable service staff whether it's catering for events or creating memorable dining experiences.

Hammett's Collection is comprised of three establishments:

Hammett's Macina Restaurant, a fine-dining restaurant in Senglea, The Sheer Bastion, an events venue (run by Hammett's Catering Co.) set atop the 16th Century bastions at the Cugó Gran Macina Grand Harbour and Hammett's Gastro Bar which offers a social, plates-to-share dining experience in Sliema.

The collection forms part of the IBB Hotel Collection, an international dynamic hospitality company present in multiple countries in Europe, with 16 hotels in their portfolio by 2019 including Merkanti in Valletta.

YOUR CAREER IN CATERING & HOSPITALITY

Why catering & hospitality?

The catering and hospitality industry is a thrilling world which presents opportunities for strong-willed, creative and hard-working individuals to flourish. No matter what position you hold, the main focus of your job is making people happy and there is nothing more rewarding than that.

Who is suited to this industry?

This industry is fast-paced, with high levels of competition and pressure, which suits a motivated and goal oriented individual. While some prefer a solid routine and work structure, a career with Hammett's Collection is ideal for those who thrive in more fluid work environments with flexible schedules and task variety. Moreover, as well as being a people-oriented industry, catering and hospitality is creative. Our products are food, drink and experiences and there is always scope for individuals to practice thinking outside the box and experimentation.

What positions are available?

Hammett's Collection is constantly growing by expanding our existing, as well as opening, new outlets. We offer careers in many fields within the banqueting and restaurant environments including chefs at all levels, kitchen porters, front of house positions including waiters, bartenders and sommeliers, as well as management roles and operational roles.

What prospects are there?

We believe in building careers. Whatever your experience level, we can help you find your niche and develop your skills through on-the-job training. Those who show determination and initiative, work well with colleagues and customers, and pursue higher qualifications can move up the career ladder very quickly. Furthermore, there are always opportunities for horizontal movement within the company and we encourage our employees to gain experience in different positions.

WHY HAMMETT'S?

Hammett's Collection offers a number of benefits and perks that differentiates it from other companies in the industry.

Joining our team guarantees:

- Highly competitive salary rates
